

BCTTNS Code of Ethics for Therapeutic Touch® Recognized Teacher

As a teacher within BCTTNS, I agree to abide by the following:

1. I will teach Therapeutic Touch® (TT) in accordance with the generally accepted principles of TT as developed by Dolores Krieger, PhD, RN and Dora Kunz as outlined in the BCTTNS and Therapeutic Touch Networks of Canada Curriculum Guidelines.
2. I will take responsibility for maintaining high standards for teaching as per the criteria outlined in Maintaining Therapeutic Touch Recognized Teacher Status. I will do so in a manner that upholds the integrity of Therapeutic Touch.
3. I will teach TT in a manner that respects students and their learning needs, and that adheres to the BCTTNS Code of Ethics for the Conduct and Practice of Therapeutic Touch.
4. I will teach my students about the need for confidentiality, privacy and informed consent, as referred to in the Code of Ethics for Conduct and Practice of Therapeutic Touch. I will follow all guidelines outlined in British Columbia's Personal Information Protection Act (PIPEDA).
5. I will make clear my fees before entering into a contract for teaching services.
6. I will represent myself with honesty and integrity to BCTTNS and the public, in terms of my education, training, experiences, professional affiliations, and the nature of my services provided.
7. I will not hold BCTTNS responsible for any consequences resulting from my teaching of Therapeutic Touch.
8. I will, to the best of my ability and capacity, participate and contribute to the BCTTNS Teachers' Collective.
